

If, On A Summer's Night, A Traveller... Telling tales of imagination and discovery

June 6 2019, 2-6pm
FREE (drop-in)

A Stories in Transit event, in collaboration with Asylum Welcome & Giocherenda, with the support of The Principal and Fellows of Mansfield College and the Warden and Fellows of All Souls.

OX1 3TF
Mansfield College, Oxford
Seminar Room West, The Garden Building

Come and take part in an afternoon of creativity, exploring themes of CONNECTION, CHANCE, AND JOURNEYS through imaginative play and collaborative storytelling, bringing stories to life with drawing, music, puppets and dance movement. With storytellers, artists, dancers and musicians, Marina Warner and guests from Stories in Transit.

This drop-in event will be open to everyone from the local community, across Oxford and beyond, to those who have come from afar and are here now, so we can build together a language of welcome.

Please bring something with you which has meaning for you, or if you can't bring it for real, please imagine it and carry that image with you. We shall start off on our search for stories with these significant things.

- All are welcome and the event is FREE
- No experience necessary – workshops are open to all levels of ability
- Children under the age of 16 must be accompanied by a responsible adult
- All materials provided
- Food and drink available
- Fully accessible venue

Bonavero
Institute of Human Rights

MANSFIELD
COLLEGE
OXFORD